1 Mr.Edwin attains the age of 55 on the 28th September 1939 when he should retire unless he is granted an extension of service.

Please see F.R.86(a). The Fundamental Rules have been made applicable to Municipal servants; and the 'sanctioning authority' under F.R.86(a) in the case of the Municipal Executive Engineer is the Resident.

The P.M.C. says that it will not be in the interests of the Municipal administration to grant the leave applied for at the present time, and he therefore recommends that the application be refused.

4. The P.M.C.'s recommendation may be accepted, unless it is considered necessary that the P.M.C. should explain, for the information of the Resident, how the interests of the Municipal Commission will suffer if the leave is granted.
